

“Magical Watercolors in Cadaqués”

CHARLES REID 15 – 25 May 2012

Welcome to join us in this magnificent opportunity to enjoy another sensational experience with unique watercolor master Charles Reid. It's his third time in Spain, this year capturing the magic of Cadaqués, Salvador Dali's hometown.

Masterful tuition by one of the greatest watercolourists in the world, like-minded people, good atmosphere and a wonderful time by the sea, on the most beautiful corner of the Spanish coast, Cadaqués, in the very heart of Cape of Creus natural park, every painters dream! We'll follow Dali's footsteps and paint all those places that inspired him for so many years: white buildings, narrow cobbled streets, quaint corners, turquoise blue waters, fishermen's boats, beautiful light, wild nature around, near the most Eastern Cape in Spain, where the sun first rises. Everything a painter is looking for, in probably the most artistic environment in Catalonia or Spain.

To round up a perfect experience, delicious food and wine at a local restaurant will make your stay unforgettable. Every detail fully organised as we want to look after you.

Our hotel is just a quiet walk to the city centre, right at a quiet little beach with fishing boats .
